Dear Brother:

Enclosed you will find your 1985 Membership Directory of Lambda Chi Alpha. This directory is being published as part of our chapter's overall effort to build and maintain communication among all of our members.

We hope you will enjoy browsing through the Directory, and that it will foster contacts with your friends and classmates. When you travel, you may find the geographical listing helpful in finding friends along the way.

Every effort has been made to minimize errors. Two mailings were made to alumni to update biographical information, and our address records were cross-checked with Penn State's alumni office. Despite our efforts, there may be errors or omissions, and we ask your help in letting us know when information is incomplete or incorrect.

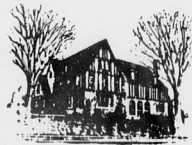

Publication of the Directory will involve a considerable financial expenditure. We hope to recover a substantial portion of the cost through voluntary contributions. If you receive some enjoyment from the Directory and wish to help us continue our effort to maintain strong alumni relations, we hope you will consider making a contribution. A postage-paid envelope has been enclosed for your convenience.

Yours in ZAX,
The Directory Committee

Opinion

Men of action

On August 8, 1985, the Carbondale Historical Society and Museum, Inc., published a newsletter which tabulated 28 specific accomplishments during an eleven month period. Among those accomplishments which affect not only the society's members but also the entire public of the Carbondale area were: preserving the architectural integrity of the former Carbondale Post Office building by persuading the U.S. Postal Service to put a special clause in the property deed; helping to create a Lackawanna County Railroad Authority which subsequently purchased the 16 mile D&H rail line from Scranton to Carbondale; and sponsoring a Christmas Concert by Scranton's Crystal Band at the First Presbyterian Church of Carbondale.

The association also: jointly sponsored, with the Junior Historians of Carbondale Area High School, a Charter Day Assembly in the school auditorium; donated $100 toward the restoration of the Civil War soldier statue in Memorial Park and subsequently helped raise hundreds of additional dollars toward that cause; joined with the Pioneer Days Committee to clean and landscape Memorial Park; applied for and received $1,350 in grant money to preserve and exhibit various historical items; and planted the Society's flower boxes in

Memorial Park.

In addition, Society officers: directed a fundraising project for the rehabilitation of the rail line from Scranton to Carbondale, raising over $10,000; made numerous historical lecture presentations to a variety of organizations and to the general public; and co-sponsored with the County commissioners an open-air band concert in Memorial Park by the Crystal Band and another concert by the Marywood Jazz Ensemble.

The accomplishments are impressive in their own right, but what is equally important is that the achievements were the result of about a half-dozen members.

S. Robert Powell, the Society's president, was a resident of New York City when he started a campaign to repair the clock in City Hall. When that project was completed, he returned to Carbondale, became active in the Historical Society, and then undertook one project after another. A new roof on City Hall is another of the Society's (and Powell's) accomplishments.

We salute the outstanding work of the Society and its most active members - S. Robert Powell, John Buberniak, Robert Tomaine, Henry Loftus, Jr., Sue Stephens, Howard Yepson, and John Klimkiewicz. We think they set an excellent example for other civic organizations to emulate.

Church reaches shut-ins with tape ministry

Berean Baptist Church, 33 Lincoln Ave., has like many other churches, members who have difficulty attending services because of age or health problems.

The church's Spiritual Life Committee has begun bringing the services to homebound members via tape recorder. The program, which was started experimentally in May, was so successful that the committee decided to continue it on a monthly basis.

Mrs. Barbara Yerson, 94 Brook St., coordinator of the program, said the tape ministry reaches over 20 shut-ins who live in Westgate Apartments, North and South High Rises, the Carbondale Nursing Home, and some private homes.

Participants are given a recorder and taped service to keep for three days. "They enjoy it so much," said Barbara. "Even if they can't be physically present for worship, they can still share in the spiritual life of the church."

The Committee has three tape recorders which are used to tape services and are also lent to shut-ins who listen to the monthly messages.

Anyone who would like to be included in this ministry should contact the church.

The Spiritual Life Committee is chaired by S. Robert Powell and Reverend Pullis. It has sponsored such projects as bringing to shut-ins communion, and conducting a social hour and refreshments after morning services once every three months.

Carbondale celebrates history in grand style

The Pioneer Days Parade in Carbondale, one of Lackawanna County's largest, attracted thousands to the Pioneer City in late August. Scrantonian lensman Bob Ventre caught several spectacular highlights on film.

Tipping the topper is S. Robert Powell, president of the Carbondale Historical Society.

In a few days, you will receive, via UPS, a large box of books from me. These are some of the books that I used while working on my M.A. and Ph.D. in French Literature at Indiana University, Bloomington, IN. Please accept these books with my compliments.

Following the completion of my doctoral thesis, an abstract of which is attached, I secured a position in an investment banking firm on Wall Street, and have since retired (age 40). Currently I am living in the mountains of northeastern Pennsylvania, where I am working on a book on nineteenth-century American history. It seems unlikely that I ever again will use any of the French and Romance Language books that I acquired as a graduate student. For that reason, I am sending some of them to you. I hope that I am acting in the best interest of the books.

Footnotes

By RICHRYCZAK

Bits of information provided by News readers

By RICHRYCZAK

This week a special thanks goes out to S. Robert Powell, president of the Carbondale Historical Society and a prominent local historian in his own right.

Robert, who had read my article on Newton Lake Park, stopped by the NEWS office with an issue of "Northeastern Pennsylvania" magazine, dated February 17, 1982. The whole issue is dedicated to the amusement parks in Northeastern Pennsylvania, and there is a section on Newton Lake Amusement Park which filled in a number of gaps in my story. For instance:

The park covered 50.5 acres.

The roller coaster was built in 1924 by a Mr. Neary. It had a 6-inch wide and 4-inch high "T" iron rail in the center. This held the cars on the track. To get cars off the track, part of the track would have to be taken off. The lift hill was powered by a one-cylinder diesel engine that could have been patented. (Anna Wagner told me that a concrete foundation where the diesel engine stood is one of the only remaining signs of where the park once was).

A man was killed on the roller coaster (date uncertain) when he unlocked the safety chain and stood up in a moving car. In 1962, the coaster, which was damaged by Hurricane Hazel, was closed because it did not comply with safety requirements. It did not, for instance, have a catwalk all along the track.

The 80' X 90' dance hall was built in 1919, with bridge-type joins. It was remodeled in 1924 with a 6-foot promenade added. In 1953 a new floor was installed. The dance hall was one of the last structures in use when the park ceased operations in the 1970's.

The carousel was built in 1881. It contained 48 figures. The magazine also gave the place where the merry-go-round ended up: Marriott's Great America in Santa Clara, California.

Once again, my thanks, Robert. You helped round out the history of a favorite amusement park.

Dear Dr. Powell:

Many thanks indeed for the wonderful manna for our library. The books you sent are a godsend of sorts, as our graduate students bemoan the unavailability of many basic texts -- such as those you included in your package -- required of the master's degree. Your thoughtfulness is very much appreciated by everyone in the Department.

The course of your career seems fascinating. Are you by chance retiring to a place near Crystal Lake? If so, let's try to stay in touch, as I often visit my brother (Steve Conley, otherwise an art director for Time magazine) who has a summer cottage above Carbondale. I would like to hear of your experiences that led you from the nineteenth century novel and Wall Street to a novel of American history.

For the entire Department, in the hope that one day we will meet, in gratitude,

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Tom Conley".

Dear Mr. Powell

I too regret that we did not meet
on the of my visit at home of Edith Gardner.
The "little book" about which you inquired
was indeed the one written by Edward Bailey
about Abington Assn. of Baptists and published in 1863. It was a book owned by my grandfather, Eder Nathan Callender, mainly of Scott
Valley - Montdole.

He also had a slight touch with Berean
Baptist Church of Carbondale. He visited the people there in their homes in Winter of 1852 and preached while there. The church had two Candidates of which he was one. Finally after several ballots the other man ^{by one vote} won. ~~the~~
his diary he expressed himself as well satisfied,
and glad that a decision had been reached.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Powell,

Thank you so much for the books. They are greatly appreciated here. We all think that your gesture is a wonderful way to make sure that the books will belong to people that care about them. We have placed the books in the graduate meeting room and allowed people to choose the books that they want. I took the Montaigne, Le Chevalier de la charette, and Le Couronnement de Louis, so I can assure you that your books have found new homes.

Thank you again for thinking about us. We are all touched by your kindness.

Dear Mr. Powell:

Season's Greetings!

On behalf of the graduate students of the Department of French and Italian at the University of Iowa, I am writing to thank you for your donation of books. I circulated a list of them to all the students, who could then indicate any desired books. In this way, each person had an equal opportunity to take advantage of your gift. I was one of the lucky ones who enjoyed the fruits of your labor & skill last evening at the desert party at Colvilles. Just wonder you to know there were those comments!

Also never knew that Robert and Rose were home until the crowd started singing "Happy Birthday". Let Paul & Robert at McDermid's over) that he was a quick - change artist to change from a white pullover to shirt & tie - his reply - "this is my twin, Powell!" Consideration on my part. C. A. Pullis:

Kindly make an effort to be accurate in presenting the Bulletin material. Your fundamentally "that's-close-enough" who's-going-to-notice-anyway attitude is extremely irritating.

02-23-1986

1295

Dear C. A. Pullis

My reply to your un-dated note (copy shown below) is as follows:

During the months of December and January, your "muddled thoughts and mixed feelings" (to quote another of your un-dated notes) apparently prevented your participation in the writing of the BEREAN NEWS (in your characteristically "that's-close-enough/who's-going-to-notice-anyway" manner, you erroneously refer to the BEREAN NEWS as the News). I am not optimistic that you will participate in the writing of the March 1986 issue or any other issues of the BEREAN NEWS. In the event that your "muddled thoughts and mixed feelings" should become un-muddled and un-mixed, kindly submit all of your material by 3:00 P.M. on Wednesday, February 26th. In addition, please type or print (using a black pen and writing on every other line) the material that you would like inserted in the BEREAN NEWS. I regret to say that I will not have time to correct the spelling and syntactical errors, as well as errors in fact, that will doubtless appear in your material for the March issue of BEREAN NEWS. That being the case, I will publish your material as submitted.

In addition, may I remind you that the Financial Secretary of the Berean Baptist Church works for the Berean Baptist Church. He does not work for the Pastor, who is one of several employees of the Berean Baptist Church. Your undated note (see copy shown below) is, therefore, in bad taste. Kindly mind your own business. Don't tell me how--or when--to do my job.

Yours truly,

S. R. Powell

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

Please complete and return in the enclosed envelope by March 15, 1986.

1. Have you always been related to this congregation, or have you been a member somewhere else?

I have always been related to this congregation.

2. Did you become a member by the following?

☒ Baptism
☐ Transfer
☐ Christian Experience
☐ Associate

3. How long have you been a member?

For over 25 years.

4. What factors influenced your decision to join this church?

I was raised in the Berean Baptist Church.

5. What expectations did you have? Were they met? How?

6. Are you an active member? yes Do you attend Sunday morning services regularly? yes. Please explain.

7. If you are not active and do not attend, what would bring you back?

I am currently an active member, but may become an inactive member because of the recent behavior of the so-called Pastor.

8. If you are a nonresident, do you [unclear] and when you are in the area? Why, or why not?

N.A.

9. Is there any way in which the congregation can improve its ministry to you? Explain.

By dismissing the present so-called Pastor.

10. How do you feel you personally might help this church minister more effectively.

My involvement in the Church would be greater if the Church were not controlled by a small clique of individuals who are not open to new ideas.

11. How do you now feel about your membership in this church?

Very problematical at the moment.

Please comment on the following:

(A) Administrative Board

Should be dissolved and the Board of Deacons and Board of Trustees re-instated.

(B) Sunday School

No direct knowledge of what goes on in this area.

(C) Pastor

Should be dismissed at once. See additional information given below.

(D) Choir

I would be happier if the Choir would sing more traditional hymns and songs.

(E) Organist

The organist is being held back by the excessively parochial understanding of the congregation of what an organist should be.

(F) Janitorial Services

The Janitor devotes too much time to cleaning the floor of the Sunday School area, at the expense of the rest of the Church. What about the garbage on the front lawn? What about the stairs? What about the sanctuary?

(G) Financial Secretary

I am the Financial Secretary.

13. Please state any other concerns and comments.

The so-called Pastor is negatively affecting the life of the congregation and should either mend his ways or be dismissed. The so-called Pastor repeatedly betrays the confidences of the members of the congregation, which means that if you discuss a personal matter with the so-called Pastor that what you have told him in confidence is soon spread all over town. Tell Claude and you tell Carbondale. Do we need a blabbermouth for a pastor? The Pastor, in addition, uses the Pulpit to make personal jabs and attacks on members of the Congregation that do not agree with him. This is not professional behavior. The pulpit style of the so-called Pastor leaves much to be desired. The following characteristics of his "style" should be noted: (1) reads his sermons and his prayers; does the Pastor have a heart?; (2) inept use of rhetorical devices; (3) breathy, melodramatic style that is more appropriate to the nursery than the pulpit; (4) sermons are frequently badly organized and aimed at the nine-year-old age level; (5) excessive use of jargon and street language--Is the Pastor aware of the fact that the congregation is largely composed of senior citizens who probably do not understand his language?; (6) condescending manner. The result of all this is that there are many people who do not attend church because of the Pastor. In addition, the so-called Pastor continually meddles in (which is different from "participating in") activities in the Church and adversely affects all of these activities. The so-called Pastor is more concerned with exercising his ego than he is with serving as a Pastor to the congregation.

On the positive side, the so-called Pastor is very good at ministering to the ill and the bereaved. Perhaps we should have two ministers: one to minister to the healthy and the living, and one to minister to the ill and the bereaved?

EPILOGUE

The microfilming of my personal papers is proceeding at a good pace. There are 1,302 pages in the present work, which means that it will be contained on 19 microfiche cards.

Here, then are some totals:

Poultry Papers (1988-1998)	13 microfiche cards
Flying Tippler Papers	28 " "
Personal Papers (1943-1970)	20 " "
Journal (1992-1998)	90 " "
Letters Received (1958-1982)	66 " "
Personal Papers (1971-1981)	19 " "
Total	236 " "

Two hundred thirty-six microfiche cards x 70 images per card = 16,520 pages of information that relate to SRP and his world.

There is also a large quantity of SRP-related microfilm that was done before this 1999 campaign, namely:

OPUS 40 (journal, October 13, 1981-December 31, 1986, ten rolls of 35 millimeter microfilm)

Comparative Aesthetics: A Workbook (one roll of 16 mm. microfilm)

Proceedings of the Committee to Restore Carbondale City Hall, Inc. and the Carbondale Historical Society and Museum, Inc., November 1981-March 1983 (one roll of 16 millimeter microfilm)

Northeastern Pennsylvania Genealogical and Local History Reprints, Volumes I (1981) and II (1982) (one roll of 16 millimeter microfilm)

Preparatory Notes . . . 1985 (12 microfiche cards)

Sheffield Publications, Inc., Carbondale, PA. 18407 Complete External History of the Corporation by S. Robert Powell (5 microfiche cards)

1987 journal (11 microfiche cards)

1988 journal (26 microfiche cards)

1989 journal (22 microfiche cards)

My personal papers mean a lot to me and I am very pleased to have a great many of them now on microfilm. I recently ordered some archival storage materials for microfilm from Metal Edge, Inc. in Commerce, CA, and will do my best to store all of this microfilm under optimum archival conditions.

I also ordered a large quantity of negative or print storage envelopes (buffered with 3% calcium carbonate, 8.5 pH-) in which I will insert all of the Historical Society's photographs and all of the family photographs. When it comes to preservation, the motto has always been—and must continue to be—"Do it now."

When I look around the house and see the thousands of objects that Donald and I either now own or will inherit, and I think about the thousands of facts that Donald and I now know about the history of the family, and I think about the thousands of memories that Donald and I now have about "home," I realize, with startling clarity how much work Donald and I have to do to make our world meaningful, in a highly significant way, to Donald II and (hopefully) his family and (hopefully) their heirs. There's not a minute to waste.

This morning when I wound the mantle clock that stands on the bookcase at the head of the stairs, I said to myself: There are only two people in the world, Donald and I, who know that this clock belonged to Mary Emma (Squire) Loomis and that she brought it here with her when she came here to live after Aunt Edna married and moved to Detroit. The message, of course, is this: Get busy and make up meaningful descriptive labels.

Now that I am beginning to get my paper world under control, I will begin to focus on the enormous task of identifying, describing, and labeling the physical world that will one day be inherited by Donald II.

Dear Brother:

Enclosed you will find your 1985 Membership Directory of Lambda Chi Alpha. This directory is being published as part of our chapter's overall effort to build and maintain communication among all of our members.

We hope you will enjoy browsing through the Directory, and that it will foster contacts with your friends and classmates. When you travel, you may find the geographical listing helpful in finding friends along the way.

Every effort has been made to minimize errors. Two mailings were made to alumni to update biographical information, and our address records were cross-checked with Penn State's alumni office. Despite our efforts, there may be errors or omissions, and we ask your help in letting us know when information is incomplete or incorrect.

Publication of the Directory will involve a considerable financial expenditure. We hope to recover a substantial portion of the cost through voluntary contributions. If you receive some enjoyment from the Directory and wish to help us continue our effort to maintain strong alumni relations, we hope you will consider making a contribution. Opinion

On August 8, 1985, the Carbondale Historical Society and Museum, Inc., published a newsletter which tabulated 28 specific accomplishments during an eleven month period. Among those accomplishments which affect not only the society's members but also the entire public of the Carbondale area were: preserving the architectural integrity of the former Carbondale Post Office building by persuading the U.S. Postal Service to put a special clause in the property deed; helping to create a Lackawanna County Railroad Authority which subsequently purchased the 16 mile D&H rail line from Scranton to Carbondale; and sponsoring a Christmas Concert by Scranton's Crystal Band at the First Presbyterian Church of Carbondale.

The association also: jointly sponsored, with the Junior Historians of Carbondale Area High School, a Charter Day Assembly in the school auditorium; donated $100 toward the restoration of the Civil War soldier statue in Memorial Park and subsequently helped raise hundreds of additional dollars toward that cause; joined with the Pioneer Days Committee to clean and landscape Memorial Park; applied for and received $1,350 in grant money to preserve and exhibit various historical items; and planted the Society's flower boxes in

Memorial Park.

In addition, Society officers: directed a fundraising project for the rehabilitation of the rail line from Scranton to Carbondale, raising over $10,000; made numerous historical lecture presentations to a variety of organizations and to the general public; and co-sponsored with the County commissioners an open-air band concert in Memorial Park by the Crystal Band and another concert by the Marywood Jazz Ensemble.

The accomplishments are impressive in their own right, but what is equally important is that the achievements were the result of about a half-dozen members.

S. Robert Powell, the Society's president, was a resident of New York City when he started a campaign to repair the clock in City Hall. When that project was completed, he returned to Carbondale, became active in the Historical Society, and then undertook one project after another. A new roof on City Hall is another of the Society's (and Powell's) accomplishments.

We salute the outstanding work of the Society and its most active members - S. Robert Powell, John Buberniak, Robert Tomaine, Henry Loftus, Jr., Sue Stephens, Howard Yepson, and John Klimkiewicz. We think they set an excellent example for other civic organizations to emulate.

Church reaches shut-ins with tape ministry

Berean Baptist Church, 33 Lincoln Ave., has like many other churches, members who have difficulty attending services because of age or health problems.

The church's Spiritual Life Committee has begun bringing the services to homebound members via tape recorder. The program, which was started experimentally in May, was so successful that the committee decided to continue it on a monthly basis.

Mrs. Barbara Yerson, 94 Brook St., coordinator of the program, said the ministry program reaches over 20 shut-ins who live in Westgate Apartments, North and South High Rises, the Carbondale Nursing Home, and some private homes.

Participants are given a recorder and taped service to keep for three days. "They enjoy it so much," said Barbara. "Even if they can't be physically present for worship, they can still share in the spiritual life of the church."

The Committee has three tape recorders which are used to tape services and are also lent to shut-ins who listen to the monthly messages.

Anyone who would like to be included in this ministry should contact the church.

The Spiritual Life Committee is chaired by S. Robert Powell and Reverend Pullis. It has been on such projects as working on shut-ins, community and family counseling, and conducting a social hour and refreshments after morning services once every three months.

Carbondale celebrates history in grand style

The Pioneer Days Parade in Carbondale, one of Lackawanna County's largest, attracted thousands to the Pioneer City in late August. Scrantonian lensman Bob Ventre caught several spectacular highlights on film.

Tipping the topper is S. Robert Powell, president of the Carbondale Historical Society.

In a few days, you will receive, via UPS, a large box of books from me. These are some of the books that I used while working on my M.A. and Ph.D. in French Literature at Indiana University, Bloomington, IN. Please accept these books with my compliments.

Following the completion of my doctoral thesis, an abstract of which is attached, I secured a position in an investment banking firm on Wall Street, and have since retired (age 40). Currently I am living in the mountains of northeastern Pennsylvania, where I am working on a book on nineteenth-century American history. It seems unlikely that I ever again will use any of the French and Romance Language books that I acquired as a graduate student. For that reason, I am sending some of them to you. I hope that I am acting in the best interest of the books.

Footnotes

By RICHRYCZAK

Bits of information provided by News readers

By RICHRYCZAK

This week a special thanks goes out to S. Robert Powell, president of the Carbondale Historical Society and a prominent local historian in his own right.

Robert, who had read my article on Newton Lake Park, stopped by the NEWS office with an issue of "Northeastern Pennsylvania" magazine, dated February 17, 1982. The whole issue is dedicated to the amusement parks in Northeastern Pennsylvania, and there is a section on Newton Lake Amusement Park which filled in a number of gaps in my story. For instance:

The park covered 50.5 acres.

The roller coaster was built in 1924 by a Mr. Neary. It had a 6-inch wide and 4-inch high "T" iron rail in the center. This held the cars on the track. To get cars off the track, part of the track would have to be taken off. The lift hill was powered by a one-cylinder diesel engine that could have been patented. (Anna Wagner told me that a concrete foundation where the diesel engine stood is one of the only remaining signs of where the park once was).

A man was killed on the roller coaster (date uncertain) when he unlocked the safety chain and stood up in a moving car. In 1962, the coaster, which was damaged by Hurricane Hazel, was closed because it did not comply with safety requirements. It did not, for instance, have a catwalk all along the track.

The 80' X 90' dance hall was built in 1919, with bridge-type joins. It was remodeled in 1924 with a 6-foot promenade added. In 1953 a new door was installed. The dance hall was one of the last structures in use when the park ceased operations in the 1970's.

The carousel was built in 1881. It contained 48 figures. The magazine also gave the place where the merry-go-round ended up: Marriott's Great America in Santa Clara, California.

Once again, my thanks, Robert. You helped round out the history of a favorite amusement park.

Dear Dr. Powell:

Many thanks indeed for the wonderful manna for our library. The books you sent are a godsend of sorts, as our graduate students bemoan the unavailability of many basic texts -- such as those you included in your package -- required of the master's degree. Your thoughtfulness is very much appreciated by everyone in the Department.

The course of your career seems fascinating. Are you by chance retiring to a place near Crystal Lake? If so, let's try to stay in touch, as I often visit my brother (Steve Conley, otherwise an art director for Time magazine) who has a summer cottage above Carbondale. I would like to hear of your experiences that led you from the nineteenth century novel and Wall Street to a novel of American history.

For the entire Department, in the hope that one day we will meet, in gratitude,

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Powell

I too regret that we did not meet
on the of my visit at home of Edith Gardner.
The "little book" about which you inquired
was indeed the one written by Edward Bailey
about Abington Assn. of Baptists and published in 1863. It was a book owned by my grandfather, Eder Nathan Callender, mainly of Scott
Valley - Montdole.

He also had a slight touch with Berean
Baptist Church of Carbondale. He visited the people
there in their homes in Winter of 1852 and preached while there. The church had two Candidates of which he was one. Finally after several ballots the other man ^{by one vote} won. ~~the~~
his diary he expressed himself as well satisfied,
and glad that a decision had been reached.

Sincerely,

Willard D. Callender

Dear Mr. Powell,

Thank you so much for the books. They are greatly appreciated here. We all think that your gesture is a wonderful way to make sure that the books will belong to people that care about them. We have placed the books in the graduate meeting room and allowed people to choose the books that they want. I took the Montaigne, Le Chevalier de la charette, and Le Couronnement de Louis, so I can assure you that your books have found new homes.

Thank you again for thinking about us. We are all touched by your kindness.

Mr. Powell,

Let me introduce myself as another member of the F.T.A. While reading the most recent bulletin, I saw your name and address. Originally, I'm from Olyphant and relocated to New Jersey in 1959. I visit my mother who lives in Scranton usually once per month.

Sometime in the future I would like to pay you a visit and discuss tipplers and the FTA with you.

Hoping that you reply.

Dear Mr. Powell:

Season's Greetings!

On behalf of the graduate students of the Department of French and Italian at the University of Iowa, I am writing to thank you for your donation of books. I circulated a list of them to all the students, who could then indicate any desired books. In this way, each person had an equal opportunity to take advantage of your gift. For those works which were high in demand, we will hold a drawing at our upcoming holiday party, thereby injecting additional delight into the festivities. Everyone here appreciates your gesture and wishes you a happy holiday. Again, thank you.

C. A. Pullis:

Kindly make an effort to be accurate in presenting the Bulletin material. Your fundamentally "that's-close-enough" who's-going-to-notice-anyway attitude is extremely irritating.

S. R. Powell

Dear C. A. Pullis

My reply to your un-dated note (copy shown below) is as follows:

During the months of December and January, your "muddled thoughts and mixed feelings" (to quote another of your un-dated notes) apparently prevented your participation in the writing of the BEREAN NEWS (in your characteristically "that's-close-enough/who's-going-to-notice-anyway" manner, you erroneously refer to the BEREAN NEWS as the News). I am not optimistic that you will participate in the writing of the March 1986 issue or any other issues of the BEREAN NEWS. In the event that your "muddled thoughts and mixed feelings" should become un-muddled and un-mixed, kindly submit all of your material by 3:00 P.M. on Wednesday, February 26th. In addition, please type or print (using a black pen and writing on every other line) the material that you would like inserted in the BEREAN NEWS. I regret to say that I will not have time to correct the spelling and syntactical errors, as well as errors in fact, that will doubtless appear in your material for the March issue of BEREAN NEWS. That being the case, I will publish your material as submitted.

In addition, may I remind you that the Financial Secretary of the Berean Baptist Church works for the Berean Baptist Church. He does not work for the Pastor, who is one of several employees of the Berean Baptist Church. Your undated note (see copy shown below) is, therefore, in bad taste. Kindly mind your own business. Don't tell me how--or when--to do my job.

Yours truly,

S. R. Powell

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

Please complete and return in the enclosed envelope by March 15, 1986.

1. Have you always been related to this congregation, or have you been a member somewhere else?

I have always been related to this congregation.

2. Did you become a member by the following?

☒ Baptism
☐ Transfer
☐ Christian Experience
☐ Associate

3. How long have you been a member?

For over 25 years.

4. What factors influenced your decision to join this church?

I was raised in the Berean Baptist Church.

5. What expectations did you have? Were they met? How?

6. Are you an active member? yes Do you attend Sunday morning services regularly? yes. Please explain.

7. If you are not active and do not attend, what would bring you back?

I am currently an active member, but may become an inactive member because of the recent behavior of the so-called Pastor.

8. If you are a nonresident, do you [unclear] and when you are in the area? Why, or why not?

N.A.

9. Is there any way in which the congregation can improve its ministry to you? Explain.

By dismissing the present so-called Pastor.

10. How do you feel you personally might help this church minister more effectively.

My involvement in the Church would be greater if the Church were not controlled by a small clique of individuals who are not open to new ideas.

11. How do you now feel about your membership in this church?

Very problematical at the moment.

1298
Please comment on the following:

(A) Administrative Board

Should be dissolved and the Board of Deacons and Board of Trustees re-instated.

(B) Sunday School

No direct knowledge of what goes on in this area.

(C) Pastor

Should be dismissed at once. See additional information given below.

(D) Choir

I would be happier if the Choir would sing more traditional hymns and songs.

(E) Organist

The organist is being held back by the excessively parochial understanding of the congregation of what an organist should be.

(F) Janitorial Services

The Janitor devotes too much time to cleaning the floor of the Sunday School area, at the expense of the rest of the Church. What about the garbage on the front lawn? What about the stairs? What about the sanctuary?

(G) Financial Secretary

I am the Financial Secretary.

13. Please state any other concerns and comments.

The so-called Pastor is negatively affecting the life of the congregation and should either mend his ways or be dismissed. The so-called Pastor repeatedly betrays the confidences of the members of the congregation, which means that if you discuss a personal matter with the so-called Pastor that what you have told him in confidence is soon spread all over town. Tell Claude and you tell Carbondale. Do we need a blabbermouth for a pastor? The Pastor, in addition, uses the Pulpit to make personal jabs and attacks on members of the Congregation that do not agree with him. This is not professional behavior. The pulpit style of the so-called Pastor leaves much to be desired. The following characteristics of his "style" should be noted: (1) reads his sermons and his prayers; does the Pastor have a heart?; (2) inept use of rhetorical devices; (3) breathy, melodramatic style that is more appropriate to the nursery than the pulpit; (4) sermons are frequently badly organized and aimed at the nine-year-old age level; (5) excessive use of jargon and street language--Is the Pastor aware of the fact that the congregation is largely composed of senior citizens who probably do not understand his language?; (6) condescending manner. The result of all this is that there are many people who do not attend church because of the Pastor. In addition, the so-called Pastor continually meddles in (which is different from "participating in") activities in the Church and adversely affects all of these activities. The so-called Pastor is more concerned with exercising his ego than he is with serving as a Pastor to the congregation.

On the positive side, the so-called Pastor is very good at ministering to the ill and the bereaved. Perhaps we should have two ministers: one to minister to the healthy and the living, and one to minister to the ill and the bereaved?

EPILOGUE

The microfilming of my personal papers is proceeding at a good pace. There are 1,302 pages in the present work, which means that it will be contained on 19 microfiche cards.

Here, then are some totals:

Poultry Papers (1988-1998)	13 microfiche cards
Flying Tippler Papers	28 " "
Personal Papers (1943-1970)	20 " "
Journal (1992-1998)	90 " "
Letters Received (1958-1982)	66 " "
Personal Papers (1971-1981)	19 " "
Total	236 " "

Two hundred thirty-six microfiche cards x 70 images per card = 16,520 pages of information that relate to SRP and his world.

There is also a large quantity of SRP-related microfilm that was done before this 1999 campaign, namely:

OPUS 40 (journal, October 13, 1981-December 31, 1986, ten rolls of 35 millimeter microfilm)

Comparative Aesthetics: A Workbook (one roll of 16 mm. microfilm)

Proceedings of the Committee to Restore Carbondale City Hall, Inc. and the Carbondale Historical Society and Museum, Inc., November 1981-March 1983 (one roll of 16 millimeter microfilm)

Northeastern Pennsylvania Genealogical and Local History Reprints, Volumes I (1981) and II (1982) (one roll of 16 millimeter microfilm)

Preparatory Notes . . . 1985 (12 microfiche cards)

Sheffield Publications, Inc., Carbondale, PA. 18407 Complete External History of the Corporation by S. Robert Powell (5 microfiche cards)

1987 journal (11 microfiche cards)

1988 journal (26 microfiche cards)

1989 journal (22 microfiche cards)

My personal papers mean a lot to me and I am very pleased to have a great many of them now on microfilm. I recently ordered some archival storage materials for microfilm from Metal Edge, Inc. in Commerce, CA, and will do my best to store all of this microfilm under optimum archival conditions.

I also ordered a large quantity of negative or print storage envelopes (buffered with 3% calcium carbonate, 8.5 pH-) in which I will insert all of the Historical Society's photographs and all of the family photographs. When it comes to preservation, the motto has always been—and must continue to be—"Do it now."

When I look around the house and see the thousands of objects that Donald and I either now own or will inherit, and I think about the thousands of facts that Donald and I now know about the history of the family, and I think about the thousands of memories that Donald and I now have about "home," I realize, with startling clarity how much work Donald and I have to do to make our world meaningful, in a highly significant way, to Donald II and (hopefully) his family and (hopefully) their heirs. There's not a minute to waste.

This morning when I wound the mantle clock that stands on the bookcase at the head of the stairs, I said to myself: There are only two people in the world, Donald and I, who know that this clock belonged to Mary Emma (Squire) Loomis and that she brought it here with her when she came here to live after Aunt Edna married and moved to Detroit. The message, of course, is this: Get busy and make up meaningful descriptive labels.

Now that I am beginning to get my paper world under control, I will begin to focus on the enormous task of identifying, describing, and labeling the physical world that will one day be inherited by Donald II.
